Position Description

POSITION TITLE: Support Coordinator

ACCOUNTABLE TO: CEO Extended Families Australia

PERIOD OF APPOINTMENT: A range of casual, short term and permanent positions are available. Temporary and permanent positions are subject to a 3 month probationary period.

HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT: To be negotiated. For casual positions hours will vary.

Extended Families aims to provide a flexible family-friendly environment for staff. Actual starting and finishing times are flexible and can be negotiated. Note that some after-hours work will be required.

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT:

Extended Families Australia facilitates positive connections between people within a community to provide support to children and young people with disabilities and their families. Extended Families seeks to widen social networks, empower individuals, promote inclusion and strengthen the bonds people have within their local area. The organisation breaks down barriers by changing social attitudes and creating opportunities.

Children and families who are supported by Extended Families have access to a number of flexible support options including individualised volunteer or support worker matching for social, recreational and respite support, support coordination, supported play groups, friendship groups and a range of recreational activities and groups.

Extended Families works extensively with the Chinese community, particularly in the Eastern Region.

With the transition to the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), Extended Families has expanded its range of services. Support Coordination is one of the services available under NDIS. The NDIS is a new way of providing support for Australians with a disability, their families and carers. This scheme aims to maximise choice and control for participants and increase social and economic participation for people with a disability. Under this scheme, participants receive a plan with the goals they want to achieve within a given timeframe and budget allocated to them by the NDIA.

The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) defines Support Coordination as:

'Assistance to strengthen participants' abilities to coordinate and implement supports and participate more fully in the community.' It can include initial assistance with linking participants with the right providers to meet their needs, assistance to source providers, coordinating a range of supports both funded and mainstream and building on informal supports, resolving points of crisis, parenting training and developing participant resilience in their own network and community.'

ORGANISATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS:

Reports to:	Directly reports to the allocated supervisor or Regional Manager and ultimately to the CEO of Extended Families.
Direct Reports:	Nil.
Internal Relationships:	The position will work closely with other Coordinators who manage other Extended Families' programs that are purchased through the NDIS.
External Relationships:	The position will work closely with and is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with the network of key disability, and mainstream community organisations and groups in the region.
Located:	27 Bank St Box Hill (or 1 / 95 Bell St Coburg), with considerable work taking place in the community.
Program Funding:	Extended Families Support Coordination Service is funded through individual service agreements under the NDIS.

PRINCIPAL ROLES AND ACCOUNTABILITIES:

Support Coordinators are responsible for providing independent support to help NDIS participants and their families manage their NDIS plan.

There are two primary levels of support coordination:

Support Connection - Time limited assistance to strengthen participant's ability to connect with informal, mainstream and funded supports, and to increase capacity to maintain support relationships, resolve service delivery issues, and participate independently in NDIA processes.

Coordination of Supports - Assistance to strengthen participant's abilities to connect to and coordinate informal, mainstream and funded supports in a complex service delivery environment. This includes resolving points of crisis, developing capacity and resilience in a participant's network and coordinating supports from a range of sources.

The Support Coordinator will work as part of a team to achieve the strategic goals of the agency.

Key responsibilities of the Support Coordinator is to:

- Support implementation of all supports in the plan, including informal, mainstream and community, as well as funded supports.
- Strengthen and enhance the participant's abilities to coordinate supports and participate in the community.
- Build capacity of the participant to achieve greater independence to self-direct services and supports in the longer term.
- Be available and responsive to participant's needs including in times of crisis.
- Ensure participants are empowered to select their preferred provider and develop an appropriate service agreement.
- Review and report on progress.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Service Delivery

- Promote the service to NDIS participants and their families.
- Liaise and network with Chinese organisations and groups in the community.
- Provide support to participants and their families to access, implement and coordinate the range of supports and services outlined within their NDIS plan.
- Source and assess support options and connect participants with services including informal, mainstream and community, as well as funded supports.
- Action appropriate referrals in a timely manner and build links and collaborative relationships with internal and external stakeholders.
- Assist participants to strengthen their abilities to coordinate and implement supports and participate more fully in the community.
- Assist participants to identify, build and maintain strong community relationships and local interests.
- Apply practical problem solving abilities to assist and mentor participants to overcome barriers and deal with crisis.
- Build networks and cooperative relationships with key services and other relevant agencies to ensure quality service delivery; create strategic relationships and to identify new support options.
- Ensure support coordination is completed as per the agreed work schedule and that data to ensure claims for payment is recorded promptly and accurately.
- Undertake program administrative duties and ensure client and statistical records are maintained, including data entry in CRM.
- Monitor and undertake regular progress reviews of the participant NDIS and Service Coordination plans.
- Undertake timely and accurate reporting of outcomes to the NDIS as required and re-develop goals prior to NDIS plan review.

Organisational responsibilities

- Work within a team environment to enhance the delivery of support services to children and young people with a disability, their families and carers.
- Remain informed about changes to the NDIS, Extended Families policies and procedures and best practice in support coordination.
- Participate in supervision and ongoing learning opportunities, attend relevant meetings and contribute to continuous quality improvement.
- Operate within the budget set for the program.
- Work within legal and ethical frameworks
- Promote the aims and values of Extended Families.
