

Inclusion Support Workers Wanted

Join our Extended Family... and make a real and lasting difference for children and young adults with a disability.

The LinC program (Linking+Inclusion+Community) offers 'one on one' support to assist children and young people to access the community by building skills to enable participation, and providing support for equal access to mainstream activities.

Who we are

We are a disability services organisation that specialises in providing social inclusion and community participation support to young people with disabilities.

We are growing our team of Inclusion Workers and will be selecting motivated, professional, engaging people who are looking for casual, ongoing work with families. We think this is a fantastic opportunity for allied health, social work and psychology students to experience practical, on the job experience in their chosen field of study.

Who you are

Ideally you will have past support work experience, be studying in a relevant field, and/or hold Certificate 3 in Individualised Support. You will be required to prove a satisfactory Police Check, a current Working with Children Check, up-to-date First Aid and CPR and hold a current Victorian Drivers licence with access to an insured motor vehicle. You will also be willing to undergo a Disability Workers Exclusion Scheme Check.

What

You would be providing practical support in a range of real-life activities that help young people learn independence skills, develop genuine relationship and engage in their community. See below examples of these activities may relate to your therapeutic fields of study.

Activity	Skill Building Area	Therapeutic Area
Getting to School	Keeping Track of Time	Speech Therapy
	Getting Dressed	Occupational Therapy
Weekly Basketball Game	Strength and Endurance	Physiotherapy
	Emotional Regulation	Psychology
Going to the Library	Searching Catalogue	Occupational Therapy
	Social Skills	Speech Therapy
Taking the Train to the City	Managing Unexpected Situations	Psychology and Speech Therapy
	Topping up Myki	Occupational Therapy

Where and When

Roles will be based across metropolitan Melbourne.

When

Before and after school, weekends and school holidays are key times for these roles, but they can occur at any time. Work may occur on a weekly, fortnightly or monthly basis and shift duration will usually range from 2-6 hours.
