

Position Description

POSITION TITLE: Support Coordinator (Mandarin and Cantonese speaking)

ACCOUNTABLE TO: Support Coordination Manager

PERIOD OF APPOINTMENT: A permanent position is available working with families across Melbourne. Permanent positions are subject to a 6-month probation review whereby employees who can demonstrate competency against the criteria outlined in the position description will be offered ongoing employment.

HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT: 23 to 30 hours a week (will consider 38 hours a week)

CLASSIFICATION LEVEL: SCHADS Level 4 or 5, depending on experience and qualifications.

Extended Families aims to provide a flexible family-friendly environment for staff. Actual starting and finishing times are flexible and can be negotiated. Note that some after-hours work will be required.

ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT:

Extended Families Australia facilitates positive connections between people within a community to provide support to children and young adults with disabilities and their families. Extended Families seeks to widen social networks, empower individuals, promote inclusion and strengthen the bonds people have within their local area. The organisation breaks down barriers by changing social attitudes and creating opportunities.

Children and families who are supported by Extended Families have access to a number of flexible support options including individualised volunteer or support worker matching for social, recreational and respite support, NDIS Support Coordination, NDIS Plan Management, supported play groups and parent groups, and a range of recreational activities and groups. The organisation has a strong commitment to inclusion and works with and employs people from a cultural and linguistically diverse background.

Support Coordination is one of the services available under National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS). The NDIS provides support for Australians with a disability, their families and carers. This scheme aims to maximise choice and control for participants and increase social and economic participation for people with a disability. Under this scheme, participants receive a plan with the goals they want to achieve within a given timeframe and budget allocated to them by the NDIA.

The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) defines Support Coordination as:

‘Assistance to strengthen participants’ abilities to coordinate and implement supports and participate more fully in the community.’ It can include initial assistance with linking participants with the right providers to meet their needs, assistance to source providers, coordinating a range of supports both funded and mainstream and building on informal supports, resolving points of crisis, parenting training and developing participant resilience in their own network and community.'

ORGANISATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS:

Reports to:	Directly reports to the allocated supervisor or Support Coordination Manager and ultimately to the CEO of Extended Families.
Direct Reports:	Nil.
Internal Relationships:	The position will work closely with other Coordinators who manage other Extended Families' programs that are purchased through the NDIS.
External Relationships:	The position will work closely with, and is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with the network of key disability, and mainstream community organisations and groups in the region.
Located:	The position will be located at our Box Hill office (Bank St Box Hill, at the City of Whitehorse Community Hub). Note work will also take place in the community and at participants homes
Program Funding:	Extended Families Support Coordination Service is funded through individual service agreements under the NDIS.

PRINCIPAL ROLES AND ACCOUNTABILITIES:

Support Coordinators are responsible for providing independent support to help NDIS participants and their families understand, build skills and implement their NDIS plan. This position will provide:

Coordination of Supports - Assistance to strengthen participant's abilities to connect to and coordinate informal, mainstream and funded supports in a complex service delivery environment. This includes resolving points of crisis, developing capacity and resilience in a participant's network and coordinating supports from a range of sources.

Specialist Support Coordination - This is a higher level of support coordination. It is for people whose situations are more complex and who need specialist support. A specialist Support Coordinator will assist participants and their families to manage challenges in their support environment and ensure consistent delivery of service.

The Support Coordinator will work as part of a team to achieve the strategic goals of the agency.

Key responsibilities of the Support Coordinator are to:

- Support implementation of all supports in the plan, including informal, mainstream and community, as well as funded supports.
- Strengthen and enhance the participant's abilities to coordinate supports and participate in the community.
- Build capacity of the participant to achieve greater independence to self-direct services and supports in the longer term.
- Be available and responsive to participant's needs including in times of crisis.

- Have a holistic practice orientation and an understanding of the various issues that may impact on a family such as mental health, child protection, relationship and socio-economic issues.
- Ensure participants are empowered to select their preferred provider and develop an appropriate service agreement.
- Review and report on progress.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Service Delivery

- Promote the service to NDIS participants and their families.
- Liaise and network with Chinese organisations and groups in the community.
- Provide support to participants and their families to access, implement and coordinate the range of supports and services outlined within their NDIS plan.
- Source and assess support options and connect participants with services including informal, mainstream and community, as well as funded supports.
- Action appropriate referrals in a timely manner and build links and collaborative relationships with internal and external stakeholders.
- Assist participants to strengthen their abilities to coordinate and implement supports and participate more fully in the community.
- Assist participants to identify, build and maintain strong community relationships and local interests.
- Apply practical problem solving abilities to assist and mentor participants to overcome barriers and deal with crisis.
- Build networks and cooperative relationships with key services and other relevant agencies to ensure quality service delivery; create strategic relationships and to identify new support options.
- Ensure support coordination is completed as per the agreed work schedule and that data to ensure claims for payment is recorded promptly and accurately.
- Undertake program administrative duties and ensure client and statistical records are maintained, including data entry in CRM.
- Monitor and undertake regular progress reviews of the participant NDIS and Service Coordination plans.
- Undertake timely and accurate reporting of outcomes to the NDIS as required and re-develop goals prior to NDIS plan review.

Organisational responsibilities

- Work within a team environment to enhance the delivery of support services to children and young people with a disability, their families and carers.
- Remain informed about changes to the NDIS, Extended Families policies and procedures and best practice in support coordination.
- Participate in supervision and ongoing learning opportunities, attend relevant meetings and contribute to continuous quality improvement.
- Operate within the budget set for the program.
- Work within legal and ethical frameworks
- Promote the aims and values of Extended Families.
